The reply was filed after a final rejection, but prior to or on the same day as filing a Notice of Appeal. To avoid abandonment of this application, applicant must timely file one of the following replies: (1) an amendment, affidavit, or other evidence, which places the application in condition for allowance; (2) a Notice of Appeal (with appeal fee) in compliance with 37 CFR 41.31; or (3) a Request for Continued Examination (RCE) in compliance with 37 CFR 1.114. The date on which the petition under 37 CFR 1.136(a) and the appropriate extension fee have been filed is the date for purposes of determining the period of extension and the corresponding amount of the fee. The appropriate extension fee under 37 CFR 1.17(a) is calculated from: (1) the expiration date of the shortened statutory period for reply originally set in the final Office action; or (2) as set forth in (b) above, if checked. Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of the final rejection, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. Continuation of 3. NOTE: Each of the three added phrases to Claim 1 consitutes a new issue requiring further search and consideration. The suffix "like" in the added phrase "rod-like" may introduce claim indefiniteness.

Continuation of 11. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: In view of non-entry of the claim amendments, applicant's arguments cannot be persuasive of patentability. Applicant's affidavit is satisfactory for overcoming the section 102(a) rejection over Waggoner et al. in JACS 123(3) 496-7 (2001), as it addresses the issues set forth in the Office Action mailed on 3 February 2005. Applicant's proposed claim amendments, that have not been entered, are nevertheless observed to suggest claim amendments to Claims 7, 8, and 10 in view of the presented claim status identifier. However, no changes are indicated in the text of these claims. Any subsequent proposed amendment should avoid this discrepancy. The rejection over Waggoner et al. is withdrawn. Claims 1-7 and 9-11 remain rejected. Claim 8 is objected to as being dependent on a rejected claim.
